

At your service to bring power back to your operations – any time and season

Sulzer's comprehensive electromechanical service center in Orange, Texas is fully equipped to maintain, repair and sell a wide range of large motors and generators for customers in mining, power generation, petrochemical, steel and heavy-manufacturing industries.

The Orange facility is both ISO and EASA certified and accredited to deliver quality services that maintain and improve efficiency and reliability not only for electric motor, but also for other rotating equipment such as expanders, pumps and light-duty general purpose turbomachinery.

Equipped with stand-alone power generation equipment, the shop is self-contained with both bake out and burn out ovens and experienced field service teams and electrical engineer to enable timely expert support and minimize your downtime.

Sulzer Orange service center is also an authorized new motor distributor for many leading OEMs. We represent various manufacturers of industrial duty motors such as GE, ABB, TECO Westinghouse, WEG, Toshiba and many more under our 20'000 ft² storage space.

- ISO certified and EASA accredited
- On-site bake and burn out ovens, field service and electrical engineer
- 24/7 emergency services

Benefit from our comprehensive service offering

Throughout the years, Sulzer Orange facility has been a reliable partner in hurricane recovery process. From cleaning and drying out electric motors to coil rewind and manufacturing and rotating equipment repairs such light-duty general purpose turbomachinery, expanders, gearbox motor, Sulzer provides contingency planning and solutions to let you focus on your core business. Benefit from our complete service offering:

- 24/7 support for on-site field service, electrical engineer and trucking services
- On-site generator, bake out and burn out ovens
- Complete electrical, machining and welding capabilities
- Repairs for AC motors up to 5'000 HP (low- and medium-voltage) and DC motors up to 2'500 HP
- In-house load testing up to 7'000 lbs torque and 4'000 RMP
- Dynameter up to 2'000 HP and 1'566 KW
- VPI (vacuum pressure impregnation) tank with 8 ft. diameter
- Rotor balancing up to 10'000 lbs., up to 14 ft. length, up to 6 ft. diameter
- More than 20'000 ft² climate-controlled storage space
- Upgraded blasting equipment with reduced environmental impact on the community

We are continually growing our services portfolio to keep your business running efficiently with parts and new equipment availability and support services to minimize repair times and reduce downtime.

Contact our sales representative to learn more on how Sulzer provide electromechanical worldwide and round-the-clock expertise.

Sulzer Electro-Mechanical Services (US) Inc.
Orange Service Center
3904 Tulane Rd
Orange, TX 77630
Phone +1 409 882 9112

www.sulzer.com

E10620 en 6.2019, Copyright © Sulzer Ltd 2019

This brochure is a general presentation of our products and does not constitute any guarantee. Please contact us to request a comprehensive description of the guarantees that we offer for our products and services. User manuals and safety instructions are supplied separately. All information provided by this brochure is subject to change without prior notice.