

Your first choice for traction and rolling stock engineering support

Sulzer is experienced in servicing your rotating equipment, including all types of AC and DC traction motors, motor-alternator sets, generators, bogies, braking systems, gearboxes, and all of the ancillary parts and equipment that come with them, used throughout the transportation sector.

Service offering

Wherever you are, Sulzer is close by to provide personal, knowledgeable support and qualified services. Alongside regular maintenance checks, repairs and complete overhaul services our workshops offer:

- Electrical diagnostics and testing
- Electrical rewinds and overhauls
- Welding
- Machining – manual and CNC
- Metal spraying
- Reverse engineering and manufacture
- Spares manufacture and supply
- Upgrades and conversions
- Inspections
- Alignment
- Monitoring and testing
- On-site support

Our promise

We understand that the relevant certifications are fundamental to your operations, which is why we are on your level:

- ISO 9001 FS00555
- ISO 14001 EMS-582461
- ISO 18001 OHS-592145
- EASA membership
- AEMT membership
- Safe contractor approved
- Employers liability
- IECEx certified service facilities
- Company QESH policy

- Reliable service
- One-stop shop
- Electromechanical expertise

